PRESS RELEASE

THE ANNEX GROUP® ANNOUNCES TWO NEW TEAM PROMOTIONS

INDIANAPOLIS (March 17, 2023) – The Annex Group®, a leading impact housing developer that creates workforce, affordable and student housing communities, announces today two notable team member promotions. Both David Wesner and Tyler Knox have been promoted to Director of Development. In this position, both will help lead the development team on all aspects of property development, including market analysis and site selection, project entitlement, project underwriting, tax credit allocation, construction and more.

“It is a great honor to be able to promote two individuals who are so committed to our company’s mission of creating a positive impact with the people who live, work and are involved in our communities,” said Kyle Bach, CEO of The Annex Group. “Both David and Tyler have had their hands on some of the most important tasks and projects to come through our company, and they have both pushed our organization forward in countless ways. They’ll continue to do so in these new roles.”

Wesner most recently served as a Land Acquisition and Development Manager after joining The Annex Group as a Development Associate in 2019. Since 2021, he has been working in and leading the company’s Denver, Colorado satellite office. Knox joined The Annex Group as a Development Manager in 2020. Since that time, he’s played a critical role in procuring new development projects and has helped The Annex Group expand into states beyond its Midwestern roots.

“At The Annex Group, our team members are our biggest difference-makers; we simply could not expand so quickly and impact so many without this team,” said Tom Tomaszewski, President of The Annex Group. “Tyler and David are both big internal drivers of our success, and they deserve the opportunity to lead in this new way.”
